You can challenge others to grow and be challenged to grow yourself

Job Description

Overview: You will act as the main “face” of 104.9 the River at station, client, and community events and remotes. You must be an outgoing individual who fully understands that making a positive impression with listeners and clients is very valuable. You must be extremely personable, organized, and dependable.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as the physical representation of the station at client and community appearances and remotes.
- Help to brainstorm and plan creative promotional and event ideas for 104.9 the River listeners, clients, and donors
- Execute station, client, and community events by:
  - Preparing for the event and packing station vehicles
  - Interacting with listeners, donors, and clients in a professional and friendly way
  - Clearly communicating the mission and vision of 104.9 the River
  - Taking artistic photos/videos for social media and event recaps
  - Tearing down equipment and unloading station vehicles
- Surprise and delight listeners, donors, and clients through our “Listener Appreciation Drop-Off” initiative
- Additional in-office tasks and projects to support all departments will be assigned as needed

We are expecting to hire an eager-to-learn self-starter that possesses a magnetic personality.

You must understand that evening and weekend hours are the “NORM”.

Hours: 75% nights and weekends, 25% weekday in-office hours
