

If you're ready for change or maybe you work in mainstream radio and can't share your faith, please continue reading. We're looking for the right person who can help us connect with listeners and become that friend who makes us more than just a radio station.

(WCVO-FM) 104.9 The River in Columbus, Ohio is currently recruiting a talented, full-time on-air personality who knows how to connect with our audience. You could co-host either the morning show or afternoon show. It's going to depend on your strengths, weaknesses and personality type. Either way, you'll have a great stage to share your faith and life with an amazing team here to support you.

Here are the specific job requirements: 5-15 years of on-air success, run on-air board, voice tracking, a passion for fundraising, knowledge of social media and living your life on the radio. Other requirements include being dependable, trustworthy, having reliable transportation, and excellent computer skills.

If you feel like God is urging you to apply please send your cover letter (which tells your story), resume, statement of faith and MP3 of your on-air work to:
